WASHINGTON, March 11.

GENERAL CONSIDERATION OF BUSINESS.

The Senate this morning, after the reading of the journal, proceeded to the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday, being the motion of Mr. Sumner to repeal the Act of 1862, admitting to the privileges of the courts persons who have been engaged in the rebellion, and the motion of Mr. Trumbull to amend the same by providing that the Act of 1862 shall not be construed to authorize the admission to the privileges of the courts of persons who have been engaged in war against the United States, and who have not been pardoned by the President, and will be restored to all such privileges.

THE PUBLIC LAND LOBBYISTS.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill to prevent persons practicing before the Land Department from being interested in the claims which they prosecute.

Mr. CONKLING said that the object of the bill was to prevent the practice which had grown up of persons who were employed as attorneys before the Land Department becoming interested in the claims which they prosecuted. He had no objection to the bill, but thought it was not sufficiently comprehensive. It did not prevent persons who were employed as attorneys before the Land Department from becoming interested in the claims which they prosecuted after the termination of their employment. He thought that the bill should be amended so as to prevent persons who were employed as attorneys before the Land Department from becoming interested in the claims which they prosecuted for a period of two years after the termination of their employment.

Mr. SCHURZ said that the bill was intended to meet a case which had been brought to the attention of the Committee on Public Lands, and which was a very flagrant one. It was the case of a man who had been employed as an attorney before the Land Department, and who, after the termination of his employment, had become interested in claims which he had prosecuted while in the employment of the Government. He thought that the bill would meet the case.

Mr. CONKLING said that the case mentioned by the Senator from Missouri was not the case which he had in his mind. He had in his mind the case of persons who were employed as attorneys before the Land Department, and who, after the termination of their employment, became interested in claims which they had prosecuted while in the employment of the Government. He thought that the bill should be amended so as to meet that case.

Mr. SCHURZ said that he had no objection to the amendment proposed by the Senator from New York.

Mr. CONKLING moved to amend the bill by adding the following section:

"That no person who shall have been employed as an attorney before the Land Department shall, within two years after the termination of his employment, become interested in any claim which he has prosecuted while in the employment of the Government."

Mr. SCHURZ said that he had no objection to the amendment proposed by the Senator from New York.

Mr. CONKLING said that he had no objection to the bill as it stood, but he thought that it should be amended so as to meet the case which he had mentioned.

Highly Interesting Testimony.

The Board of Supervisors met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. There was a small attendance of the audience at the opening of the board. The spectators outside the railing were more than usually interested. President J. J. Kearney took the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

WAIT FOR THE WAGON.

A communication was read from Superintendent Kimball asking that a wagon be built for the purpose of conveying broken pavements to and from the Central Engine-house.

Supervisor WORTHINGTON was opposed to the resolution. It would cost more to keep horses than to pay for carriage. He moved it be put on the table.

Supervisor WAITE was a driver of the proposition. Sometimes he had more pavements dumped at the Central Engine-house than at any other place in the city.

Supervisor CLARK said he would vote for the motion to lay the resolution on the table. He thought the Board of Supervisors had more important business to attend to than to build wagons. Such a request should come from the Board of Public Works.

Supervisor CLARK thought it would be cheaper in the end, provided the Supervisors used it when they wanted it, to do as the Inner House, and by so doing reserved the services of the carriages when they were not wanted.

The yeas and nays were called for, and the motion to lay the resolution on the table was lost.

Supervisor CLARK moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Property.

Supervisor WAITE moved to amend by referring it to the Committee on Streets and Alleys.

Supervisor CLARK said he would have no objection to the matter being referred to the Committee on Streets and Alleys, which was a larger committee than the Committee on Public Buildings and Property.

Supervisor WAITE was in favor of a good wagon, which would cost about $1,000, and which would save nothing but horses when riding to fires. If what all the papers said was true, all the horses would be of no use for anything but to pull wagons. He moved to refer the matter to the Committee on Asylums, Lunatic Asylum and Poor-house.

Supervisor HIBBARD thought the Insane Asylum to Joliet. (Laughter.)

Supervisor WAITE thought the Insane Asylum was not a bad place. (Laughter.)

Supervisor HIBBARD. Would have to have that wagon ride when waiting for friend Waite or other lunatics. (Laughter.)

The motion to refer was carried.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING CHARGES AGAINST THE COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Supervisor CLARK presented the following report from the Special Committee of Five, Somebody Appointed:

Supervisor MORRISON. To it as follows:

STATEMENT OF DAN O'HARA.

Mr. O'HARA. Let me briefly state to you, gentlemen, [illegible] I am not acting directly or indirectly in a political capacity. I am not responsible to a great number of persons who, want their wants supplied, and who look to me to investigate and visit it at any time of day, and then go about and see what is the best thing to be done. I am in favor of carriages at the fire-engine-houses, and I am in favor of the board providing them. I am in favor of a good wagon, which will cost about $1,000, and which will
